TEMACEO'S TULANE STAKES.

WINS IN A CANTER FROM ANGELUS-SALLY PRESTON WITH PEDRO UNPLACED.

Cunning Best in the Two-Year-Old Race-Lens Scores Again for Pat Dunne-Lord Lovat Proves a Surprise.

New Orleans, La., January 22 .- The Tulane Selling Stakes, one of the richest features of the winter season here, made up the stellar offering of a good program at City Park. The heavy track was instrumental in causing numerous withdrawals and the stake also suffered by the scratching of Juggler, Zipango, Momentum, John Carroll and Hyperion II. Their absence left eight to go and in a speculative way there was little to choose be Temaceo and Miss Delaney, although the former was most in favor near post time. Favored by good riding, Temaceo was away from the post in the first flight and escaping interference the first turn, where there was a bad jam, he was kept in close pursuit of Orphan Land and Sally Preston for the first three-quarters. Notter then took him to the outside where the going was best and in the stretch run he came away to win as his rider pleased. The showing of Angelus was creditable. He was in the worst going most of the He was in the worst going most of the way, but by sheer gameness got up in time to beat Sally Preston for second place. Pasadena, but for suffering from early interference and a poor send-off, would have been at least second. The net value of the race to the winner amounted to $2,470.

The condensed history of the Tulane Selling Stakes is as follows:

Winner. A. Wt. Jockey. Val. Time. Year. Winne 1905 Shawana

best sprinters here by his sterling performance in the handicap at six furlongs, in which Tileing and Al Muller were both given preference over him. Al Muller went out at once into the lead and threatened to spreadeagle the others, but the Dunne representative stuck doggedly to his task, and, gradually but steadily gaining on Al Muller, wore him down in the last seventy yards to win amidst tumultuous applause. Al Muller finished fully tea lengths in front of Tileing.

Excepting the stake all the other races were keenly contested and the results were in doubt until within the last few strides. In the opener Cunning gained the decision in hard drive of four, Nasturtia beating Mrs. Sewall, with the improved Gloriole but a head back. T. Shipp, after many attempts, finally made good, but to do so he had to be ridden out to the last ounce to stall off Apple Toddy.

Lord Lovat, in the second race, enabled a sharp eastern contingent to profit handsomely by his vic-He was much the best and had to be, as his rider, C. Lange, almost fell off him. He swerved foul being sustained. After the finish Lord Lovat ran away seven furlongs before his rider could get him under control.

Ivanhoe gained a fluky victory in the closing under better riding Tern's Rod would have won easily.

Jockey Mulcahy, who has been riding for Trotter at Oakland, was an arrival today and will ride here as a free lance.

W. O. Joplin, who has been training the horses owned by A. E. & W. Mathews, has severed his connections with the stable and will in future devote his time to training the horses owned by himself.

The news that racing would not be held at Hot Springs this spring, was a blow to many horsemer who had strong hopes of it coming off and made arrangements to ship to the Vapor City. The story that syndicate bookmaking would be abolished at Fort Erie insures that track a surfeit of racing

At a sale by auction held in the paddock before the racing began, the following horses were disposed of: Louise K., $850, J. Flemming; Joe Shields, $270. M. Nicoll; Agnes Wood, $230, M. H. Rush; Linnie Gordon, $100, M. H. Rexford; Maid Militant, $150, J. B. Riley; Luther B., $100, J. B. Riley; Arrow Swift went to T. C. McDowell for $300, supposedly bought in for his owner.

Sensational testimony developed in the William Rabb trial, who sued Francis Trevelyan and others for damages for defamation of character, when Wishard, who also was involved in the Rabi trouble that caused the latter to be ruled off at City Park in February, 1906, stated under oath that he had raced Pat Bulger with a leaden frog in his hind foot to insure his defeat. was favorite in the race, and Rabb had knowledge of his intended defeat. Wishard also admitted having received money from Rabb. The jury, after hearing all the evidence and having the case under consideration briefly, decided for the defend-

SUMMARY ACTION FOR FORM REVERSALS. | HENDRIE'S KING'S PLATE CANDIDATES.

Sudden Improvement of Horses Arouses Judge Hamilton-Favorites Continue to Score,

Los Angeles, Cal., January 22.-Judge Hamilton was on the warpath today and ordered the future entries of Suzerain and Sly Ben refused. races according to his judgment showed glaring inconsistency and he is determined to give racing lovers of Los Angeles as clean sport as possible number of other horses are being carefully watched and the moment their performances show reversal of form they will be dealt with in a like Jockey C. H. Shilling drew a $100 fine from starter Dwyer today for disobedience at the post. R. F. Carman will ship Riffeman to Oakland to run in the Burns Handicap. Mr. Carman is sanguine of Rifleman winning the $10,000 race.

Mrs. W. Holland will send Colonel Jack and the Keene Bros. will ship Clamor on the same train. A. J. Levy, the well-known bookmaker, arrived today and will cut in next Saturday.

Only seventeen tooks drew in today, a falling off of one. Most of the pencillers are heavy losers and accounts for the comparatively small cut in. Harcourt, on the strength of his previous good race, was made a decided favorite in the opener, but lost the race by a head. Duke of Bridgewater, which ran lapped on Harcourt throughout, finally wore him down in the closing strides. Henry of Shennamere, at a long price to win, but well backed to finish in the money, was an easy third.

Hampass repeated his good race of last week and was an easy winner over Madeline Musgrave in the second race. They received all the support of those speculatively inclined and the speculators were ac cordingly put in good humor early in the afternoon. In the third race another pronounced favorite won when Taylor George scored in a lucky effort. Gos per II. would have won in a few more strides.

Magazine and Rosegal closed equal choices in the fourth race and finished first and third respectively after racing as a team all the way to the wire Creston, in a fast closing rush, separated the two in the last fifty yards, taking second place from Rosegal. Pretension and Sir Edward, both recent winners, were beaten off and were never really dangerous at any stage of the race. Dazzle set the pace in the mile and a quarter selling race which followed, but found the distance too far. Livius, the favorite, trailed the others in the early running, but closed up like a shot last quarter and got up to win in the last few strides of a remarkably game finish. The last race of the day resulted in an upset, the Commando filly, Slippery, finishing first in a close drive with ancient Aunt Polly and Teacress The latter was unlucky, got off badly and made up so much ground as to make it sure she would have won if off well.

MANY HORSES DEPARTING FOR TAMPA.

New Orleans, La., January 22.-The first shipment of race horses from the local tracks to Tampa Fla., for the meeting there next month, was made yesterday on the steamship Morgan, something like fifty horses being in the consignment. This is the in the last sixteenth, but did not interfere suffi-ciently with No Quarter to warrant the claim of the owners whose animals will make the trip are as follows:

William Gerst, Tanner & Ripy, C. W. Moore Charles Paretto, H. Warner, Browning & Perkins Newcom, Scott & Cox, S. Orsin, A. M. Smith, L. C. Schobe, Scott Laird, Palmer & Eaton, Pons & Holder, H. Powers, M. D. Fulton, Charles Wilson, James Straits, C. E. Brosius, B. L. Marders The owners who have already made reservations for the steamship Manteo, which will leave to for the Tampa meeting, are as follows: J. McLennan, Lancaster Brothers, C. W. Powell Co., S. Davidson, R. A. Wilson, H. Brown, J.

Hildebrand, J. Hand, C. Houbre, M. Levy, Pons & Holder and N. Hexter, Each of these vessels will make one more trip from this city to Tampa, sailing from here about the end of the month and already reservations have been made for nearly one hundred horses. The indi cations therefore are that about 250 horses in all will be sent from here to Tampa to take part in the CALIFORNIA'S NEW BREEDING BUREAU.

Oakland, Cal., January 22 .- With the four-year old chestnut colt, Altanero, by Altamax-Picnic, won the stallion race last on the card Thursday, and the five-year-old bay horse, Roscoe, by Russell-Tildee, which Colonel W. E. Applegate has donated to the California Breeding Bureau, three stallions are now its property and destined to stud service at different farms throughout the state. When Thomas H. Williams announced his intention last fall of inaugurating a breeding bureau for California, Colonel Daniel breeding establishment of Burns & Waterhouse, at Hopland, and also an associate of President Williams as a steward of the Pacific Jockey Club, do the bureau. nated Colonel Wheeler to Wheeler has served in stud duty at Candelaria for several years and a number of his get have shown several years and a number of his get have shown well in their racing.

President Thomas H. Williams is now working out the details of the placing of the twenty stallions which it is expected will be secured in this way before the close of the Oakland meeting. It is probable that Tholumne county will get the first assignment and the others will be placed with ranchers to be selected in different parts of the state.

Bon Ino Is Mercifully Put Away-Inferno Winter ing Well-Herses Return to Old Home.

Toronto, Ont., January 22.—President Joseph E. Seagram, of the Ontario Jockey Club, has been in the city for several days on business. Mr. Seagram reports that it was necessary to chloroform the courteen-year-old bay mare Bon Ino, by Marauder-Bonnie Ino, on account of infirmities of old age. Bon Ino was the dam of Inferno, Haruko and other good performers. Mr. Seagram says all of his norses are wintering well and that Inferno will, in his opinion, be hard to beat at weight for age over the Woodbine course next spring if he trains to exectations

The Valley Farm Stable has acquired by purchase from the Kirkfield stable of R. J. Mackenzie three horses which will be eligible to carry the yellow and brown jacket in the King's Plate. They are the four-year-old brown colt, Kirkfield, by The Comoner-Ogarita, by Great Tom; the three-year-old chestnut filly, The Lintie, by Martimas-Pee Weep, and the three-year-old chestnut filly, Shimonese, by Martimas-Lyddite. The last two were bred by the Wm. Hendrie and bought by Mr. last spring at the estate sale. The Linite'is a full sister to Kelpie and the dam of Shimonese herself won the King's Plate in 1902. Kirkfield was pur chased in utero from W. O. Parmer of the Edenwold Farm in Tennessee. The other two horses which may represent the Valley Farm stable in the running for the Plate are the three-year-old colt, Scud, by Gold Car—Splash, and Archie Whyte, the three-year-old chestnut colt, by Derwentwater-

AMERICAN THOROUGHBREDS FOR EUROPE.

Lexington, Ky., January 22.-Twenty thoroughbred mares and geldings purchased for export in and around this city during the past seven or eight days by Scott Hudson, of Atlanta, acting for foreign parties, were shipped yesterday to New York. From there they will be sent to England and then be distributed to other European points. The mares are either barren or have never been bred. It is understood that they are to be used as hunters, for there is not one of them under fifteen and one-half hands, and they are all built to carry weight. Nearly all of them have raced in this country, but few have won. They are not the sort that are fancied here either for racing or riding purposes, and they were bought at an average of less than $200. Mr. Hudson has an order to supply about 200 more of the same kind if he can procure them; but as bad as they seem for American purthey are scarce, for they must measure to certain standards all around. Even these have not as much breadth in the shoulders as was desired. The list is as follows:

SARATOGA'S OFFICIALS AND STAKES.

New York, January 22 .- At the annual meeting of directors of the Saratoga Racing Association held in this city yesterday, the following officers were elected: President, Francis R. Hitchcock; vice-president, Harry Payne Whitney; secretary and treasurer, Andrew Miller. Executive Committee-Francis R. Hitchcock, Andrew Miller. R. T. Wilson, Jr., H. P. Whitney, T. Hitchcock Jr., and H. B Duryea.

Although ten days of the Saratoga meeting are overlapped by the dates of the Empire City Racing Association's meeting at Yonkers, practically the entire schedule of stakes offered last summer be renewed. At the meeting yesterday the schedule for the meeting was made up and the offering of stakes and purses representing a total estimated sum of nearly $300,000 decided upon. change was made in the Great Republic Stakes, was for two years a $50,000 race. season it was reduced to a $20,000 race. A further change was decided upon yesterday and, while its general conditions and distance remain the same the Great Republic for 1908 will be a sweepstakes with $10,000 added money, still leaving it the chief event of the meeting for matured horses,

NEW USE FOR MONTGOMERY PARK.

Memphis, Tenn., January 22 .- Montgomery Park, ome of thoroughbred racing horses for many years was selected today by the officials of the Tri-State Association as the location for its annual exhibition, where, as a departure, trotting and running races are to be held, it without betting. The first fair will be held September 28 to October 6, inclusive.

GIVES MUCH WEIGHT AWAY AND WINS EASILY FROM GOOD RACERS.

Apto Oro and Cloyne Defeated by Long Shots in Unexpected Fashion-Good Track in Prospect for Burns Handicap.

Oakland., Cal., January 22 .- Deutschland displayed marked stake form by his brilliant achieve-ment in the feature race, the San Pablo Handicap, at Oakland today. Barney Schreiber's wonderful old stallion carried top weight of 122 pounds as if it was a feather and won a cantering victory over a quartette of lightly weighted horses, inchuding a seriously considered Burns Handicap eligible, Johnny Lyons, to which he was conceding seventeen pounds. Deutschland opened and closed a strong public choice and his success was received with tremendous enthusiasm.

While four favorites made good during the afternoon it is doubtful if either the plunging contingent or the rank and file laid up anything on their ring operations, due to the two stunning upsets furnished in the two-year-old race and the conclud-

"Halter" Tommy Griffin furnished the winner of the former in his False Nun, which he had taken great pains to deny having done any fast work in As a matter of fact the private, as was reported. As a matter of fact the beautifully bred filly by The Friar—Bettie's Deceiver had worked three furlongs at Santa Anita in thirtyfour seconds before coming up here and heavy support was forthcoming from her Los Angeles admirers in both of her preceding public efforts, when there was evidently nothing doing. Today False Nun delivered the goods at odds of 30 to 1 in a style that stamps her more than useful.

The greatest upset, however, came in the last race when Raleigh, a neglected 50 to 1 shot, galloped away from the supposed invincible Cloyne, with Walter Miller up. Everybody, including the owner of the winner, stood agape over the result. The wagering on Cloyne, which was considered the surest tip on the card, was of the heaviest description and her defeat netted the layers a fortune. Walter Miller continues to hold his own with two victories and two seconds to his credit out of five mounts. Jocund, which finished beaten off, was so palpably unfit to race before the race that he should have been ordered withdrawn.

Glorious weather prevailed and if it keeps up until Saturday the big race will be run over a fairly good track. . In that event it is possible that as many as twenty-five horses may start. There was slight falling off in the number of layers to-day's draw-in, thirty-six as against thirty-eight taking positions. One of the largest off-day crowds of the meeting was attracted to the track by the good card and fine weather.

Trainer Harry Mason is confined to his home by threatened attack of pneumonia. J. L. Holland arrived today from Los Angeles. He brought his good Burns Handicap candidate, Colonel Jack, with him. Henry Flittner, Barney Schreiber's cashier, was taken suddenly ill yesterday. Edwin Gum has developed a quarter crack and will run in bar plates as a result.

FORT ERIE RACING PLANS THIS YEAR.

The summer meeting of the Niagara Jockey Club at Fort Erie will consist of thirty-six racing days, beginning July 27, and continuing until September 5, inclusive. Contractor L. S. Long of Chicago has been awarded a contract to completely overhaul the plant and bring it up to date in every respect, and he expects to have all the alterations made before the meeting opens. He will begin work as soon as the weather permits. Frank H. Nelson. who has officiated as associate judge in the at the Woodbine course for several years, will be offered the position of presiding judge during the Fort Erie meeting, and either starter Dwyer or Dade will do the starting. Louis A. Cella and J. H. Madigan, who are stockholders in the Niagara Jockey Club, announce that they will not start any of their horses in any race to be run during the meeting. While they do not know of any existing reason for taking this course they believe it will be for the best interests of racing at the track.

EXERCISE BOY THROWN AND INJURED.

Lexington, Ky., January 22.-Lucien Lean, an eighteen-year-old colored boy under contract to trainer John Rodegap, was unseated by a two-yearold at the Kentucky Association course ing, was dragged about fifty feet and is in St. Joseph Hospital with a bad cut over his right eye and his right arm broken just above the wrist.

Thompson, of Philadelphia, who getting together a string to be trained by Pete Burrell, the former jockey, today bought of Jerry Delph, who is acting for Mrs. E. Le Israel, of Thorndale Stud, the two-year-old chestnut filly by Don de Oro-Lorna Dunne (dam of Swift and True and Countess of Melbourne).

Max Samuelson, manager of Senorita Stud, says that W. Harry Brown will not sell the property this year at least. He is inclined to the opinion that if the Broomstick yearlings prove as good as they lock, Captain Brown may be persuaded to rac some of them himself.

J. O. Keene says he does not regret keeping Mansard in training, but gives the Santa Anita track the credit of rejuvenating the old gelding. Mansard early in the fall was so lame that Keene thought of retiring him, but now believes that the Florist gelding will continue in good form during the rest of the winter racing.

BARNEY SCHREIBER'S STABLE WINNINGS.

In 1906 Barney Schreiber was the leader among western winning owners with a total of $82,693. Last year he was again the leader, but his horses did not gather him so much money. Jack Atkin was his chief winner and a good one. Had Neaion been kept the stable earnings of the Missouri turf-man would for the first time have passed the $100,000 mark. As it was, the majority of owners would consider them decidedly enviable. The money earning record of the stable was:

Went to post at 2:11. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. False Nun, from a flying start, forced the early pace, then drew out decisively right at the end and is a good one. Apto Oro, from a good start, set the pace to the final sixteenth and then succumbed. Yolo was a forward and game contender throughout and is promising. On Parole, away slowly in close quarters, loomed up midway of the stretch, but quit finally. Alice Collins, away flatfooted on the inside in bad going, closed a big gap in a cracking effort. Chas. W. Hodges was away poorly and inadequately ridden. Schmoozer is a grand looker.

Went to post at 2:38. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Mansard ran in nearest pursuit of the pacemaker to midway of the stretch and made good finally and decisively after going wide on the last turn. Captain Burnett, away badly, closed an immense gap into a fast geing second. Import was a prominent and game contender throughout. Burning Bush set a stiff pace for five furlongs and tired as if short. Sam Barber, a slow beginner and away poorly, made up much ground and is extra good. Prince Brutus failed to stay. Jocund was sore and unfit. The winner was entered for $1,500; no bid.

Deutschland drew out and made the running by a wide gap while hard held throughout and is in grand form. Johnny Lyons maintained close pursuit of the winner all the way and was a pulling up second. Northwest, badly outpaced for six furlongs, finished well under a bad ride. Husky, not quite keyed up, ran prominently for seven furlongs and loomed up menacingly on the far turn, but tired badly in the stretch. Los Angeleno is training for four-nille races.

Winner—Ch. h, by Governor Foraker—Emily 8. (trained by T. H. Stevens).

Went to post at 3:25. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driying; second and third the same. Ramus, from a good start, was forwardly placed in the early running and outstayed the leaders in a long closing drive, with the conditions of the track against him. Midmont was well up throughout and finshed resolutely. Warning broke slowly and was injudiciously forced to set the pace in the worst going and succumbed finally, but ran a very game race. Excitement was a keen contender throughout, but swerved into bog-like going near the end. Rosy Light was gaining steadily in the last half. Mill Song went well for half the journey. Raleigh, showing remarkable form, indulged Green Goods with the lead to the half, then drew out and casily held sway to the end. Cloyne, well up and reserved for the first half, finished fast and gamely, but could never quite get up. St. Avon, after forward contention to the stretch, tired in the closing drive, Green Goods set the pace for half the journey, then tired, but 4s extra good. Billy Pullman was never dangerous and ran a bad race. Margaret Randolph was outpaced from the start.

The latter showed much speed and rare gameness under the whip in the closing strides, but could not quite get up. Sink Spring, in a sharp last sixteenth drive, nipped Merlingo-out for third place. Chippewa showed speed, but tired badly in the final sixteenth. Merlingo closed a big gap. Wistaria ran a good five furlongs. The winner was entered for $1,000; no pid.

Winner—B. f, by Chilton—Prestidigitatrice (trained by R. J. Walden).

Went to post at 2:00. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Cunning, well ridden and favored by the going, ran a good race and, standing a hard drive gamely, was drawing clear at the end. Nasturtia, showing improvement, closed a gap and finished with a rush. Mrs. Sewall ran prominently throughout and made a game finish for third place. Gloriole, while going wide most of the way, made up much ground and was a fast going fourth. Smart showed early speed and was going well at the end. Inela acted badly at the post and showed the most early speed, but tired badly in the last furlong. Pinion broke slowly and was taken wide most of the way. Helen Kidder belted to the outside rail soon after the start.

Scratched—72690 After All, 105; 72690 Molly Stark, 105.

Overweights—Nasturtia, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. g, by Ruskin II.—Caloocan (trained by W. H. Fizer).

Went to post at 3:01. At post 5 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second and third the same.

E. T. Shipp, showing much the most early speed, was taken to the best going and, standing the final drive more gamely than usual, outstayed Apple Toddy. The latter was always in closest pursuit and but for acting badly at the post, where he was much used, would probably have won. Rustle, away poorly, closed a big gap and was in the worst going through the stretch. Ethel Carr, also away poorly, made up much ground. Lute Foster showed socci, but tired badly after going a half. Queen's Souvenir ran fairly well. Albert Star was in a jam most of the way. Goldquest ran a bad race. Tamar was outpaced all the way and can do much better. The winner was entered for $1,000; no bid.

Scratched—72763 Hollow, 105; 72803°Hans, 105; Dix Ben, 97.

Winner—B. c, by Macy—Tee-Ky-Tee (trained by G. P. Brazier).

Went to post at 3:31. At post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second and third driving. Temaceo ran under restraint for nearly three-quarters, then moved by the leaders on the stretch turn and, taking the lead, won as his rider pleased. Angelus, favored by the going, ran an excellent race and but for being in the worst going in the last quarter would have been much closer up. Sally Preston got into the lead quickly and made the running to the stretch, but was tiring and barely lasted long enough to save third place. Pasadena suffered from much interference on the first turn and was a fast going and close up fourth. Pedro was also knocked back on the first turn and closed a big gap. Plantland ran peorly. Miss Delaney was also crowded out on the first turn. Donna, away poorly, had scant chance. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Winner—Ch. g., by Hermence—Georgia Kinney (trained by T. E. Mannix).
Went to post at 4:32. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving: second and third the same.
Ivanhoe was favored by the going and, showing superior speed, led throughout, but had to do his best near the end to outstay Tern's Rod. The latter gained steadily and was wearing the winner down fast in the stretch. Besterling ticed fast after going a good three-quarters and had no mishaps. St. Noel ran only fairly well and can do better. Athena was going well at the end. Crafty ran a bad race. J. D. Homa was always in the rear and not persevered with. The winner was entered for $600; no bid.

ILL-FOUNDED RULINGS AT NEW ORLEANS.

Mountain Victim of Newspaper and Betting Ring Scandal-Mongers.

New Orleans, La., January 21 .- The recent turf bere, growing out of what is now termed the Old Honesty-Pasadena-Ryan-Mountain affair, has brought to the surface once more the old time-worn proposition that the friends of racing are often its worst enemies. The official result of all the turmoil was simply this: Ryan left here and went to his home in Cincinnati on personal business, it was claimed. The judges ruled that Mountain would not be eligible to ride on either track during the remainder of the season. The storm that eventually centered around Ryan and Mountain, began, as such things usually do, in the betting ring. Apparently Ryan had been winning money, with the natural corollary that the betting ring had been losing money. Immediately it began to be whispered about that Ryan was "doing business"—that he had jock-eys on his staff, and when the Old Honesty-Pasadena race came up, and Ryan beat the ring out of a lot of money on the victory, easily achieved, by way, of Old Honesty, and Mountain rode a badlooking race on Pasadena, the horse failing to perform anywhere near to his usual racing quality, Mountain's name was at once connected with that of Ryan. Some of the newspapers endeavored to make a sensation out of Ryan and a mark out of

Through all this unsavory bunch of inconsiderate no official announcement was made that either Ryan or Mountain had been guilty of fraud. None of the betting people, and none of the bookmakers, or bookmakers' clerks, came forward, so far as careful investigation has been able to reveal, with any single item of proof of wrong-doing on the part of either of the parties involved. And yet to listen to the nightly talk in "the paddock," as the lobby of one of the leading hotels has come to be known, one might imagine that in the particu lar instance Ryan and Mountain might have been guilty of every crime in the calendar from petty larceny to manslaughter. The writer has no apology or excuse to offer for either Ryan or Mountain, if either of them needs apology or excuse. He is not championing the cause of either. He is merely pointing out that the entire matter, so far as any exact facts have developed, has had no other substructure than that of gossip.

It is bad enough when enemies of racing make capital of the shortcomings of the sport, but what shall be said of men-owners, trainers, layers and players-who, whenever they lose a bet raise ery of wolf? These are men who all make their living out of racing. Instead of lending their voices continually to wails of fraud they might better be employed in counselling patience until tangible evidences of fraud have been forthcoming. In this connection the writer is reminded of an incident in one of the early conferences leading to the formation of the Eastern Jockey Club, at nearly all of which, in a newspaper capacity, he was present. Prominent and influential leaders of the eastern turf had tired of the rule, or rather lack of rule, of the old Board of Control, and clearly foresaw the menace to racing that existed in the managemen of the sport as conducted in New Jersey, and par the all the year around racing carried on at Guttenberg. They realized that something had to be done to preserve the sport to New York state. After an agreement had been reached among the metropolitan racing interests, a meeting was called to be held at the Hoffman

At this meeting practically all the prominent turfmen in New York were present, with the exception of August Belmont. Marcus Daly, who had the previous autumn won the Futurity with Ogden, was in attendance, and while Mr. Daly did not feel like mixing in turf politics in a matter that entirely concerned New York state, yet expressed some pertinent opinions, sharply criticized wealthy American turfmen who raced their stables abroad, and concluded his remarks with statement that "he would rather win a selling race in this country than a Derby in England." This, however, is by the way. The sense land." This, however, is by the way. The sense of the meeting crystallized when James R. Keene expressed pronounced views as to the running of horses at 50 to 1 one day and even money the next, which was of frequent occurrence at Guttenberg, where some of the heaviest betting ever known in this country took place. Mr. Keene was carried away by his argument, and made some assertions which probably he would not have made in calmer moments. The trend of Mr. Keene's remarks im-pressed his auditors that racing was in a very bad way, as undoubtedly it was at that time, but more especially his strictures on the morality of the Colonel W. P. Thompson, then president of the lead trust, and only recently identified with racing through his purchase of the famous Brookdale Farm, followed Mr. Keene. Colonel Thompson modestly expressed his unfamiliarity with the rules and necedents governing racing and said: "Gentlemen I am not well informed to offer an opinion as to the so-called thieves and burglars of the turf, or as to how to hold them in check. As a business man of many years' experience, however, I have found that you cannot very well conduct business on a theory of doubt and suspicion. Confidence must be at the bottom of business enterprises, and while it may be that fraudulent practices exist on the turf, it would be very disheartening to believe that all the people connected with racing were crooked." The writer cannot recall Colonel Thompson's exact words, but that was the gist of his remarks, and they made a profound impression. His broad-minded regard for turf interests might well fit present conditions not only in Louisiana, but elsewhere as well. Suspicious circumstances connected with racgation at the hands of the officials, but if the officials are able men and alive to the necessity for clean turf government, outsiders might well afford to forego idle talk and unfounded rumor that in many instances lead to miscarriage of justice and in all cases do racing untold harm.
